AMERICAN VS. FOREIGN SAUCE. - A cause was tried last July in our Courts, the parties being the American agents for the Worcestershire Sauce against a Sauce made here under a recipe bought from a party in England, claiming to be the owner thereof, and with a similar label and general appearance, all of which was supposed to belong to the party aforesaid that sold the recipe, and used by the purchaser in good faith, as his right to the purchase.

The agents finding that they had no cause against Mr. A. A. Smyth, the suit in his case was discontinued. The matter came up again yesterday against another party who had sold the Sauce complained of. As before, no case was made out.

Mr. Thomas R. Patton, of Thirteenth and Locust streets, is the only party whose case has not been called up. He is the one least b.amable in the whole matter, as he supposed he was buying Worcestershire Sauce that had been imported and sold to him as a bargain, for some cause to him unknown.

Epicures who tried to find a difference between the Sauces submitted to them failed to do so, proving conclusively that the American article was as good as the imported. Mr. A. A. Smyth manufactures this American Sance, known as the "Champion of American Sauce," which is now sold at all our best groceries, and is used at the hotels, restaurants, and private tables with more satisfaction than any Sauce made in either America or Europe.

BUBNETT'S KALLISTON-The best cosmetic.

CHAMPION OF AMERICA TABLE SAUCE,-Next to bread itself there is scarcely a single article that enters more generally into the table bill of fare in every household than Sauces. One of the most popular and delicious of these is the "Champion of America Table Sauce," manufactured by Mr. A. A. Smyth, at Nos. 2129 and 2131 Market street. The praises of this celebrated Sauce are univer-al among people who have tried it-so much so that families, hotels, restaurants, grocers, and purveyors generally are ordering it in preference to all others. We confess our own partiality for it. It is appetizing, healthink, and agreeable, and for meats, game, fish, soups, salads, gravies, etc., is just the thing. In another column of our paper to-day we publish a list of testimonials, to which we invite special atten-

IMPRESSIVE INCIDENT IN LIFE INFURANCE Practically Illustrating the Non-Forfeiture 48w woverning

Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston, Mass.

GEORGE P. SANGER, PRESIDENT. GEORGE B. AGER, SECRETARY.

ELIZUR WRIGHT, ACTUARY. The John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company P.11D at their office,

No. 150 South FOURTH Street, Philadelphia, on the 17th of November, 1870, to Mrs. Richard A. Douglas, residing Northeast Comer Sixteenth and Coates streets, Philadelphia, the policy for insured his life on Mey 3, 1869, for fifteen thousand dollars. He then paid for one year. He neglected his second payment, which was due on May 3, 1870. He died on September 2, just four months afterwards.

FIFTEN IN THOUSAND DOLLARS on her late husband, under the rollowing circumstances:-

Now, this Company, by its charter, transacto all its business under the non-forfeiture plan: consequently Mr. Douglas' policy was in Full force at his death. From the $4.0,000 was deducted merely the amount which he should have paid to OBSERVE THE CONTRAST: Mr. Douglas had fifteen thousand dollars additional insurance in other socatled non-furfeiting companies, and, as with us, had neglected his payments. These policies became for feited and of no value because the payments were not made on the day when due! His policy in The John Hancock Mutual would not have expired We desire to make the advantages of the John Hancock so clear that any one contemplating insurance upon his life will avail himself of them. The wisest man has little knowledge of the changes which await him. He who feels the least need to-day of the non-forfeiture provision may be the most aided by it at some future time. It imposes no extra cost. Therefore, what can justify your neglect of it? In addition to this provision in our charter our conditions are liberal, rates low, plans popular, and responsibility undoubted. A careful investigation will convince an unbiassed judgment that there is nothing desirable in life insurance which may not be secured in the JOHN
